

TECHNICAL NOTES

WINE NAME	Quinta do Alqueve Touriga Nacional Syrah
WINERY	Pinhal da Torre
STORY	Located in Alpiarça in the heart of the Tejo region of Portugal, Pinhal da Torre is dedicated to the production of high quality wines using the best Portuguese grape varieties. In its winery - a regional icon - using only grapes from its own Quinta de São João and Quinta do Alqueve estates, Pinhal da Torre combines the knowledge and experience of generations dedicated to vineyards and viticulture. The care and passion it devotes to its terroir seeks to showcase the unique expression and identity of its grapes and vineyards. The wide diversity of varieties produces exceptional and unique wines. These world-class wines are recognized for their purity, elegance and personality.
TERROIR	Campo
SOIL	Sandy clay
APPELLATION	DOC do Tejo
WINE TYPE	Red Wine
GRAPE VARIETIES	Touriga Nacional & Syrah
TASTING NOTES	Vibrant cherry, blackberry, red flowers, licorice and olive brine. Moderate tannins are balanced by acid and bring forth the juicy blackberry fruit, asphalt/tar, mace, cured meats, iodine and more of the olive character in the finish.
FOOD PAIRING	A terrific wine with steaks and chops, can handle some heavy dishes and provide the necessary refreshment.
