

TECHNICAL NOTES

WINE NAME

Casal do Conde Moscatel

WINERY

Casal do Conde

STORY

Founded by winemaker Manuel Henriques, Casal do Conde, has been rooted on the north bank of the Tejo River since the early 20th century. The company's 75 hectares of vineyards are planted with native Portuguese and international varietals that have been carefully selected for their suitability to the Bairro terroir of Tejo. The estate's commitment to viticulture and investment in the best of modern winemaking technology demonstrate their confidence in the future of the Tejo region as a quality wine-producing region in Portugal.

TERROIR

Bairro

SOIL

Clay-limestone with schist

APPELLATION

VR Tejo

WINE TYPE

White Wine

GRAPE VARIETIES

Moscatel

TASTING NOTES

Shows classic aromas of peach, white grape juice and fresh flowers. The palate is fresh and balanced with juicy fruit and acidity.

FOOD PAIRING

Perfect aperitif or with poached fish

PRODUCTION

40,000 bottles

WEBSITE

www.sacasaldoconde.com