

TECHNICAL NOTES

WINE NAME	Quinta do Alqueve Tradicional Tinto
WINERY	Pinhal da Torre
STORY	Located in Alpiarça in the heart of the Tejo region of Portugal, Pinhal da Torre is dedicated to the production of high quality wines using the best Portuguese grape varieties. In its winery - a regional icon - using only grapes from its own Quinta de São João and Quinta do Alqueve estates, Pinhal da Torre combines the knowledge and experience of generations dedicated to vineyards and viticulture. The care and passion it devotes to its terroir seeks to showcase the unique expression and identity of its grapes and vineyards. The wide diversity of varieties produces exceptional and unique wines. These world-class wines are recognized for their purity, elegance and personality.
TERROIR	Campo
SOIL	Sandy clay
APPELLATION	DOC do Tejo
WINE TYPE	Red Wine
GRAPE VARIETIES	Touriga Nacional, Aragonês, Trincadeira and Castelão
TASTING NOTES	Nose of raspberry, cherry and blackberry that is almost candied, slight gamey/cured meat, hibiscus tea, pepper with a bit of clove and vanilla. The wine remains bright and fresh on the palate with a juicy character and a slight sesame oil and ash note in the finish.
FOOD PAIRING	Would go with a variety of dishes from poultry to pork and steak.
PRODUCTION	20,000 bottles
WEBSITE	www.pinhaldatorre.com